NEWS RELEASE

Nov. 18, 2009

Eastern Kentucky University's 2008 Milestone yearbook cover has won third place in the 2009 Best of Collegiate Design national competition.

College Media Advisers hosts the annual event, which recognizes outstanding design in yearbooks, newspapers and magazines. More than 1,000 entries were judged in this year's contest.

The recognition for the Milestone cover is especially significant since 2008 was the revival year for Eastern's yearbook, which had not been published for a decade. The theme of the 2008 book, "Touched by Tradition," was evident in the traditional design style and maroon and black colors featured on the cover.

Guiding the creation of the 304-page book were editor Chad Hutchison, designer Laura Kersey, copy editor Melissa Mollohan and photo editor Alisa Vogt. Adviser to the 2008 Milestone was Deborah Givens, journalism instructor in the Department of Communication.

Copies of the 2008 Milestone are still available and may be purchased by contacting Deborah Givens, 622-6564, deborah.givens@eku.edu.

The 2009 Milestone is on sale in the EKU Bookstore, and the 2010 Milestone can be pre-ordered at www.jostensyearbooks.com.
